

New Academic Guidelines
New MHSAA Academic Guidelines

For the 2009 / 2010 school year the MHSAA has added the provision that all student athletes must have passed 66 percent of the full credit load potential from the previous semester. What that means for our student athletes is that they now must have passed 5 classes out of the 7 that are available, to be eligible the next semester for sports