- B. If the employee is not satisfied with the outcome of the meeting, the employee may seek recourse through the appropriate adjudicative body.

ARTICLE VII

SENIORITY, LAYOFF AND RECALL

- A. Seniority is defined as the length of the service of the employee within a classification.

All Employer responsibility to the employee on the basis of seniority is as hereinafter set forth. Seniority accrual will be within the following distinctive classifications prior to July 1, 2021:

1. Teacher assistants
 2. Playground/teacher assistants
 3. Lunchroom supervision assistants
 4. Media center assistants
 5. Pre-school assistants
 6. IF assistants (formerly LRE)
- B. All new hires, after July 1, 2021 will be under the classification of Paraprofessional.
- C. Newly hired employees shall be regarded as probationary employees until they have satisfactorily completed a sixty (60) work day probationary period of employment within a classification. If at any time prior to the completion of the sixty (60) work day probationary period of employment the employee's work performance is unsatisfactory to the Employer, the employee may be discharged by the Employer during this period without appeal by the Union. There shall be no further responsibility for the reemployment of such probationary employees if they are laid off during this period.
- D. In order to acquire or accumulate seniority within a classification, the employee assigned to the classification must work sixty (60) working days of employment, uninterrupted by layoff or leave of absence. In the event a probationary employee is temporarily laid off and reinstated, or in the event such employee is absent on scheduled work days, said employee shall work additional days equal to the number of days that the employee was absent. Such employees shall not have completed their probationary period until these additional days have been worked. Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period for a new hire, the employee's seniority date within that classification and bargaining unit shall be established as of the employee's first working day.
- E. In the event that two or more employees satisfactorily complete their probationary period within a classification on the same date, their seniority shall be determined by adding the last four digits of the affected employee's social security number. The highest combination of the last four digits shall result in that employee having the higher seniority.
- F. Seniority lists shall be established and maintained by the Employer and made available to the Union designee no later than the fourth Friday of each school year. Any objections must be submitted in writing within seven work days from the Union designee's receipt of such list. Thereafter, the seniority list shall be considered final and accurate and the District shall incur no liability for relying upon the accuracy of the seniority list.
- G. An employee shall be terminated and lose his/her seniority within all classifications if:
1. The employee quits.
 2. The employee is discharged and not reinstated through the grievance procedure.
 3. The employee is absent for three (3) consecutive working days without prior approval or authorization for a leave of absence.
 4. The employee fails to report for work upon written notice of recall from layoff on the first scheduled work day following the layoff, unless the employee notified the supervisor within three (3) working days of receipt of recall notice, exclusive of days when no mail deliveries are made, that the employee is unable to report on that day but established a reporting date within ten (10) working days following receipt of the recall notice.

5. The employee fails to report for work on the first regularly scheduled work day in which the employee is scheduled to report back to work, following a leave of absence, or fails to secure an approved extension of a leave of absence.
 6. The employee falsifies personnel records, medical history, criminal record, or falsifies the reason for a leave of absence.
 7. The employee is employed elsewhere during a leave of absence without the knowledge of the Employer.
 8. The employee is laid off for a period one (1) year, or the length of time equal to the employee's years of service but not to exceed three (3) years, whichever is greater.
 9. The laid off employee is offered and refuses a position within the bargaining unit of substantially equivalent hours and rate of pay; with the exception of IF's (formerly L.R.E. Aides).
- H. Should a continued enforced absence, such as sickness, require an employee to be absent from his work over an extended period of time, the following considerations shall be applied:
1. Seniority shall continue to accumulate for up to 12 working months.
 2. After one (1) year of continued absence, except in the event of a worker's compensation injury or illness in which case it will be after two (2) years, the position of the absent employee shall be filled permanently.
 3. The seniority of an individual involved in an enforced and prolonged absence shall be continued provided he/she returns to work within a period of twelve (12) working months, except that in no event shall this apply where the length of absence exceeds seniority accumulated at the time such absence began.
- I. Layoff and Recall Procedure - When a reduction within a classification is necessary, the following shall be the order of layoffs:
1. Probationary employees
 2. Employees with the least amount of bargaining unit seniority in the classification that is to be reduced.
 3. It is the intent of the parties that employees shall be laid off beginning with the newest bargaining unit employee.

4. Employees to be laid off have at least two (2) weeks' notice of the lay-off. The local Union president shall receive a list from the employer of the employees being laid off on the date notices are issued to the employees.
5. Recall shall be in reverse order of layoff with recall to work being sent via U.S. First Class to his/her last known address according to the records of the District at the time of layoff. The local Union president shall also receive a copy of said notice of recall via their e-mail address. The most senior person on layoff shall be recalled first in his/her respective classification to a position for which he/she is qualified. No assistant will be recalled to a position in a classification other than that from which he/she was laid off. This does not deny any employee the right to apply for a vacancy that may exist for which he/she is qualified.

In the event the employee fails to make himself/herself available for work at the end of said two (2) weeks, he/she shall lose all seniority rights.

The above information concerning last known address and timelines will be contained in the employees notice of layoff.

6. Laid off employees from one classification may bump into another classification, provided they have more bargaining unit seniority than the employee in that classification with less bargaining unit seniority, provided that the employee also has the necessary qualifications and the then-present ability to perform the job. An employee who otherwise possesses the seniority and necessary qualifications or may be able to obtain the necessary qualifications will be given up to ten (10) hours of training to acquire the ability to perform the job. Upon completion of the training period provided, the employee's immediate supervisor shall make the determination of whether or not the necessary qualifications have been met. This determination may be appealed, by the Union, to the Superintendent of the school district for final determination.
 7. Recall - In the event a future need for services occur, positions shall be filled by the most senior qualified bargaining unit member making application. Recall rights for bargaining unit members on layoff shall not supersede bargaining unit member's seniority rights. An employee who otherwise possesses the seniority and necessary qualifications, or may be able to obtain the necessary qualifications will be given up to ten (10) hours of training to acquire the ability to perform the job. Upon completion of the training period provided, the employee's immediate supervisor shall make the determination of whether or not the necessary qualifications have been met. This determination may be appealed, by the Union, to the Superintendent of the school district for final determination. The Employer shall notify the employee by certified mail to the last known mailing address. It shall be the employee's responsibility to maintain her current address and/or forwarding address with the Employer.
- J. An employee who transfers to either a confidential or supervisory position dealing with the classifications covered by this Agreement shall continue to accrue seniority for sixty (60) working days. During this 60-day working period, the employee may revert back to his/her former position at his/her option without loss of seniority, or the Employer may revert the employee back to his/her former position without appeal or protest from the employee and/or the Union. If the employee remains in the confidential or supervisory position, his/her seniority within the bargaining unit shall be frozen effective the 61st working day and remain frozen as long as the employee is employed in the confidential or supervisory position dealing with the classifications covered by this Agreement.

- K. Assistants who are regularly assigned to work with inclusion students shall be offered and must accept alternative work in the event the student is absent. Such alternative assignment shall be limited to a maximum of sixty (60) calendar days.

The Employer may then require periodic verification of the health of the employee in relation to the performance of the employee's normal job duties.
 2. When she is required to interrupt her normal job duties because of such pregnancy, and upon a written statement by a physician that such leave is necessary due to the disability, then the employee shall be granted a leave of absence for the duration of the disability.
 3. The employee shall return to work no later than six (6) weeks after delivery. Upon return, the employee shall furnish the Employer a signed medical statement from her physician, indicating that she is physically able to return to work. If the employee is unable to return to work within six (6) weeks after delivery, the employee must furnish a doctor's statement establishing the fact that she is disabled and is unable to return to work, as well as an indication of the employee's expected date of return. The Employer reserves the right to require the employee to submit to an examination by an Employer-paid physician should the disability period exceed six (6) weeks.
